

Counselor Protest

Room?

He emphasized ~~the~~ the importance, in this age of increasing permissiveness, of the Army Reserve officer training. It inculcates a sense of discipline respect and patriotism so essential in the young people who will one day be the nation's leaders.

1/3 turnover each year & gives all that transferrable training

② ROTC off 2 campuses but on 20 more with 40 waiting Emphasized that the army will try to arrive at compromises with colleges to preserve programs - on a campus by campus basis of negotiations

BUT also made clear that the army perceives colleges as essential in the promotion of officers ~~as~~ goal that all officers will have BAs

Essential A. moulding

sharls
discipline patriotism

B. Permissiveness

Medical discoveries Innovations in curriculum planning & psych testing he explained to us how the army was everywhere - working ~~as~~ as one (counselors) are - for the good of the ^{people} youth of America

Very Pragmatic view
 If on any campus the program becomes emasculated to the point where the army's needs are not served it is quite prepared to sever its relations with that institution - there are plenty waiting who will accept army money.

a group of us came to protest. We had a couple of thousand leaflets and five signs. The program director was ready to loose control of his bowels. He looked like he expected a mob of Weathermen to tear down the hall. He was uninterested in negotiating and agreeing taking us to the general and his staff to negotiate our way to minimize the disruption of his program. After Army Intelligence had taken our names and pictures we agreed to the General agreed to our demand. We were given time for speech in our own.
